Clean Break

You handle the feelings. We handle the boxes.

Mar Mikhael, Beirut · since 2024

Hi, we're Clean Break

We're a small moving and courier company with one pretty specific job: we sort out the practical side of a breakup.

If you lived with someone and it ended, you already know the list. Somebody has to move out. Your stuff is at their place, their stuff is at yours, and there's a box of photos nobody wants to open. Most people end up dealing with all of this at the worst possible moment, usually face to face with the one person they'd rather not see. That's where we come in. You tell us what needs to go where, and we do it, so you don't have to see your ex just to get your charger back.

Our mission: to make the end of a relationship a little less painful by taking the awkward errands off your hands.

How it started

In 2024, Ahmad, Mohamad and Zakaria gave up a weekend to help a friend move out of a shared flat. It should have taken an afternoon. It took two days, a lot of awkward silence in the living room, and a negotiation over who keeps the sofa. Getting one PlayStation back took another two months and two mutual friends.

On the drive home they kept saying the same thing: none of this was hard work, it was just hard to do yourself. Someone in the middle, who doesn't know the story and doesn't take sides, would have made the whole thing calmer. A few months later they rented a van and a small office in Mar Mikhael.

What we do (and what it costs)

Service	What you get	Price (USD)
Silent Move-Out	You leave for the afternoon. We pack everything and move it to your new place, and it's done in under 4 hours. Up to 3 movers, a van and all the boxes and tape are included, plus a photo report at the end. One drop-off address, anywhere we cover.	Studio or 1-bedroom: $150 2 bedrooms: $220 3+ bedrooms: $300
The Swap	One of our couriers takes your things to your ex and brings theirs back. You both approve a photo checklist first, and we photograph every item at pickup and again at drop-off. Only happens if both of you agree to it.	$40 a trip in Beirut $55 a trip to Metn
Memory Vault	For the stuff you can't throw out yet but can't look at either. We keep it in a sealed box (60 x 40 x 40 cm) for 3, 6 or 12 months. Two weeks before the end we'll message you, and you decide: take it back, send it to your ex (only if they want it), or donate it through one of our partner charities.	$15 a month per box (3 months minimum) 12 months: $150 per box

Fresh Start	A deep clean, the furniture moved around and three new plants, so the place stops feeling like "ours". Takes about 5 hours.	Studio or 1-bedroom: $120 2+ bedrooms: $170
The Full Clean Break	A Silent Move-Out (studio or 1-bedroom), one Swap and 3 months of Memory Vault for one box.	$210 (you save $25)

How booking works

1. Message us on the website chat, Instagram or email.
2. We do a free 15-minute call to figure out what's moving and when.
3. You get one fixed price. No surprises on the day.
4. You pay a 30% deposit and pick a date.
5. We do the job and send you photos when it's done.

When, where and how to pay

We're open Monday to Saturday, 9:00 to 19:00. We're closed on Sundays and public holidays. We cover Beirut and Metn, and nowhere else for now.

We need 48 hours' notice. If you need us within 24 hours we'll try, but Express bookings cost 50% extra.

You can pay in cash (USD), with Whish Money, or by credit or debit card. The 30% deposit holds your date and the rest is paid when the job's done. Cancelling is free up to 24 hours before. After that, we keep the deposit.

Things we're strict about

- We don't take sides. We don't ask what happened and we won't tell one of you anything about the other, apart from what you've both agreed we need for a Swap.
- We carry things, not messages. Only what's on the checklist. No letters, no notes, no "can you tell her that...".
- We only go in with permission from someone who lives there and has the right to let us in. A Swap needs both of you to say yes.
- If you both want the same thing, it stays put until you agree in writing. We're movers, not lawyers. For anything about divorce, custody or who owns the flat, please talk to a lawyer.
- Valuables go in a sealed pouch. Jewelry and important papers travel in a sealed pouch that someone has to sign for. We don't carry cash or anything illegal.
- If we break it, we pay for it, up to $500 per job.
- Your details stay with us. We only use them to do the job, and we delete the photos 30 days after it's finished.
- If you feel unsafe, please don't book us. Call 112. Your safety matters more than your stuff.

Why people pick us

- You never have to see your ex. Not once, not even to hand over a key.
- We don't take sides, and we don't need to know the story.
- It's quick. A full move-out is done in under 4 hours.
- It's discreet. Our vans have no logo on them, so the neighbours don't need to know.

The people

Name	What they do
Ahmad Karnib	Co-founder and CEO. Spent five years doing logistics for a moving company in Beirut, so knows exactly how many boxes fit in a van. Handles pricing, partners and most of the worrying.
Mohamad Hamdan	Co-founder, Head of Operations. Used to be a hotel concierge. Runs the movers, the couriers and the storage unit, and is the reason you get a photo of every item at the end.
Zakaria El Labban	Co-founder, Head of Customer Care. Came from event planning. Wrote most of our rules about staying neutral and trains everyone who joins.

There are 12 more of us, all movers and couriers, and every one of them has signed a confidentiality agreement.

Questions people ask us

Will my ex find out I booked you? For a Silent Move-Out, only if they live there too and have to let us in. A Swap always needs both of you to agree, so yes, they'll know about that one.

Do the movers know what happened? No. They get an address, a time and a checklist. That's it.

Can I be there while you pack? Sure. Most people would rather not be.

Can you give my ex a letter? No, sorry. Things only, never messages.

What if we both say something is ours? It stays where it is until you both agree in writing. We can't help settle it, and we don't give legal advice.
